GOSPEL MEDITATION

“He breathed on them and said to them, ‘Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.’” For those of us who go to confession regularly, there is often a familiar frustration: “Why do I keep confessing the same sins?” It can feel like a loop, cleansed but unchanged. Pentecost reveals a hopeful perspective. When the Risen Jesus breathes on his ashamed and fearful disciples and gives them the Holy Spirit, he echoes Genesis, when God breathes life into Adam. This is not just primarily the removal of guilt, but new creation. In confession, we receive more than forgiveness. We receive a fresh outpouring, the breath of the Spirit, and a renewed mission. Jesus does not say to us, “You’re forgiven, now go back to your old life.” He says, so to speak, “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” That is why penance is not just saying a few prayers. It is reorientation. It is the Spirit summoning us to live differently: with mercy and healing. Just as Adam was sent into the world, and the Apostles were sent out after Pentecost, so too we are sent from the confessional — not just clean, but consecrated. Pentecost Challenge: After your next confession, ask the Holy Spirit for one way you can participate in Christ’s healing will for you. Then take one small, concrete step, and do not look back.

SUNDAY’S READINGS

FIRST READING

Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit.

SECOND READING

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ.

GOSPEL

Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.

Heavenly Father,
 Today, we pause to remember those who gave their lives so we may live free. Thank You for their courage, sacrifice, and love of country. May their memory inspire us to serve others selflessly and live with purpose. Lord, comfort the families left behind – wrap them in Your peace and remind them their loved one’s sacrifice was not in vain. On this Memorial Day, help us to live worthy of their legacy and honor them with our words, our hearts, and our prayers. Amen.
