Corpus Christi

● Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14-16 ● Psalm 147 ● 1 Corinthians 10:16-17 ● John 6:51-59 ●

Today we celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ. We stand in awe that Jesus makes himself truly and entirely present in the Eucharist. We marvel at the glorious mystery that the Divine Son of God not only became a man and offered himself on the cross but that he also comes to us, Body and Blood, so that we can receive him into our own bodies in Communion.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is early in his ministry, but he is already pointing people toward his Last Supper, passion, and death. He tells them that just as God had fed his people Israel with manna in the desert, he would feed them. But Jesus is not speaking only about physical bread and the miraculous multiplication of the loaves John 6:1-15. He is promising the "food that endures for eternal life" 6:27. He is proclaiming that he himself is "the living bread that came down from heaven" and that he will give them his own "flesh for the life of the world" 6:51.

Two thousand years later, we encounter this same Jesus at every Eucharist. What a glorious gift! He offered his Body and Blood on the cross to save us, and now he gives us that same Body and Blood at the altar.

At Mass today, as the priest lifts up the Host, fix your eyes and heart on Jesus. As you pray, "Lord, I am not worthy," trust in the mercy of your crucified Savior. As you come forward to receive Jesus, proclaim your faith in his true, Real Presence in what was once only bread and wine. And as you kneel in grateful prayer, praise and thank him for giving his life to you and offering himself for the whole world.

Thank You

Thank you to all our parishioners, visitors and volunteers for making our Sunday Consecration such a tremendous success. Thank you for all the amazing dishes and treats that fed every single worshipper who was hungry. Messages of praise, thanks and congratulations have been flooding in and the news of our wonderful church is spreading wide.

Second Collection this weekend – Needs of the Church in Canada

The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) is mandated by the Holy See and the Bishops of Canada to assist dioceses/eparchies and their Bishops in a number of areas of pastoral life: faith formation, doctrine, ecumenical dialogues, international relations, interreligious conversations, liturgy, relations with indigenous Peoples, social justice, and building a culture of life and family.

Every year, the Bishops of Canada appeal for financial assistance. This collection helps each diocese make its annual contribution to the national Episcopal Conference and to the respective regional episcopal assembly (in the Atlantic, Quebec, Ontario and Western regions). Any additional funds from the collection are at the disposal of the diocese for its own pastoral needs.

MERCY

Here is a saying that you can rely on and nobody should doubt: that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. I myself am the greatest of them; and if mercy has been shown to me, it is because Jesus Christ meant to make me the greatest evidence of his inexhaustible patience for all the other people who would later have to trust in him to come to eternal life.
